SECTION IX. NARRATIVE
On 27 January 2014, at about 1738 hours, I (Officer Striff) was dispatched to 1905 Bogue Circle for a "keep the peace". Alexandra Keller (suspect) requested officer assistance to retrieve personal items from the residence. 1905 Bogue Circle is located in the main military housing area of China Lake and the residence is situated in the County of Kern. On arrival, I contacted Robert Bump (victim). I asked bump what was going on and the following is a summary of his statement. Bump and his wife Alexandra Keller (suspect) had an argument, January 26th, 2014 between 1830 and 1900 hours that became physical. Bump was upset about her posts on Facebook and told her he wanted her out of his house. Bump told her to take her personal belongings with her. When she refused, he took a basket of her belongings and put them on the front porch. Keller tried to pull the basket from his hands but he did not want to let it go. When she could not pull it from his hands she became irate. Bump explained Keller was positioned on his left side perpendicular to his body. Keller grabbed his face with her left hand, digging her nails into his upper lip and sticking her finger in his mouth. With her right hand, she grabbed the back of his neck and squeezed causing her nails to dig into his skin (see photos enclosure 1). Bump said he dropped the basket and backed away to console their child. Maddix Bump is their mutual child who is approximately one and a half years old. Shortly after the incident, Keller left the residence with Maddix without further incident. I requested Bump show me the injuries he sustained. He had one mark on his upper lip that was approximately a quarter inch in length, but was slightly hidden by his facial hair. Bump also showed the back of his neck where there was a half inch vertical wound that was red, swollen and the skin was broken. Bump explain he had tenderness and pain in his hip, but there no visible signs of injury existed. Bump could not recall why his hip was injured. At about 1751 hours, Keller arrived at the residence to retrieve property. I allowed her to gather some personal belongings before she and her son went to the Women's Shelter in Ridgecrest. I asked Keller what happened between her and her husband the night before and the following is a summary of her statement. Keller said they were in a heated argument about Facebook and her husband was accusing her of cheating. She explained Bump was upset because she has ex-boyfriends on her Facebook and still communicates with them. Keller said Bump told her to get out of his house. She said he grabbed some of her personal items in a small basket and took them to the front porch. She tried to take the basket from him and he would not let go. I asked her how her husband got marks on his neck and upper lip. She said she grabbed his face and neck to stop him from putting her belongings on the front porch. Keller was not aware that Bump had any injuries to his face and neck. I request the Kern County Deputy District Attorney review this report for the possibility of charging Alexandra Keller for violating California Penal Code 273.5(a)-Corporal Injury on a Spouse. This case is submitted in a closed status. This report is forwarded for action/disposition.///End of Report///

SECTION IX. NARRATIVE
On 1 September 2013, at about 2321 hours, I (Officer Muncy) responded to 1410 Kearsarge Avenue for a report of a domestic disturbance in progress. 1410 Kearsarge Avenue, is located in the housing section of Naval Air Weapons Station (NAWS) China Lake and is situated in the County of Kern. I arrived on scene at about 2325 hours. I obtained consent from the owner of the household Curtis Cameron and entered the residence. I made contact with Alexandra Marie Keller-Bump (Victim) while Sergeant Luevano detained Robert Bump (Suspect) outside the residence, while I conducted my investigation. The following is a summary of Alexandra's verbal statement: Alexandra was visiting her friend Heather Cameron (Witness) at 1410 Kearsarge Avenue, when Alexandra's husband Robert arrived at the residence intoxicated and demanding to take their infant son home. After Robert came into the house, he walked down the hallway towards the bedroom where the infant was sleeping. Alexandra stood in the doorway to the bedroom to block him from entering the room because

the infant was asleep. Robert then grabbed her by the neck and forearm pushing her in to the door trying to enter the bedroom. Alexandra pushed him back to get him off of her. Alexandra stated that she had not consumed any alcohol at all.

I spoke with Heather Cameron and the following is a summary of Heather's verbal statements:

They were playing cards at the table when the doorbell rang. Heather answered the door and Robert came inside and went down the hallway towards the bedroom. Alexandra stepped into the doorway to the bedroom to stop Robert from entering and waking up the child. Robert then grabbed Alexandra around the neck and pushed her out of the way. Alexandra pushed him back trying to keep him from entering the room. Heather's husband Curtis then escorted Robert outside.

NAWS CDO, ide was contacted at 2355 hours and responded to the scene. Alexandra was provided a Victim/Witness pamphlet.

NCIS Special Agent Jefferson Worden was notified at about 0010 hours and arrived on scene at 0100 hours with SAIC Michele Staroskta.

NCIS assumed the case at 0115 hours.

Special Agent Worden requested I take Robert back to the China Lake Police Department to have a Preliminary Alcohol Screen (PAS) test administered. The test result was .248% Blood Alcohol Content (BAC)

Special Agent Worden arrived to take Robert to the Branch Health Clinic, where he was released to his command, HMC Brown.

This case is submitted in an open status pending further investigation by the Naval Criminal Investigative Service. This report is forwarded for informational purposes only.///End of Report///
